"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing."-- Revelation 5:12

Dear Parishioners,

Last Sunday we celebrated Divine Mercy Sunday, a day in which we honor our Lord's great mercy for all of us, most especially for the greatest of sinners. One of the ways that we can all put divine mercy into action in our lives is through our new stewardship program. While the goal of most stewardship programs is to increase gifts of time, talent, and treasure (which we hope to do!), my ultimate hope is that our stewardship program will make us all more deeply aware of the dangers of selfishness and self-centeredness and give us all a greater willingness to serve others. I also hope that our stewardship program will lead us all to be even more grateful to our Lord for His many gifts to us and to be generous with those gifts.

Last week you received in the mail a letter and a brochure explaining our stewardship program. This week you will receive another mailing, which will include a brochure that briefly describes all of the different ways you can be involved in our parish, as well as a commitment brochure by which you can indicate how you will make a personal commitment of time, talent, and treasure to St. Ann's. Next Sunday, 17 April, we will take a few minutes during Mass to complete these commitment brochures. If you'd like to fill it out before Mass, please do so and bring it with you. Otherwise, we will have blank commitment brochures available at Mass. Please give prayerful consideration this week to how you can share God's love and mercy with others and give thanks to Him by making a commitment of time, talent, and treasure to our parish.

Once again this summer the diocesan Office for Vocations will be offering Quo Vadis Days for all young men who are rising freshmen in high school through seniors in college. The five-day camp will take place at Belmont Abbey College from June 13 – 17 and will be an opportunity for the young men to grow in their faith, consider their own vocation as a Catholic man, and delve into the meaning and mystery of the priesthood.

Additionally, the diocese is offering a similar retreat for young women who are rising freshmen in high school to rising freshmen in college. This first annual Duc In Altum Days will take place at Belmont Abbey College from June 27 – July 1. This retreat is designed to instruct young women in authentic femininity after the role model of Mary Immaculate, and open their hearts to feminine vocations as wives and mothers, consecrated religious, and consecrated lay faithful.

Further information and registration forms for both camps can be found on-line at: www.charlottediocese.org/vocations. If anyone is in need of financial assistance to attend these camps, please let me know.

In gratitude for your love and generosity,

Fr. Reid

Jubilee Year of Mercy April 10, 2016 Third Sunday of Easter

How appropriate today's Gospel for this Jubilee Year of Mercy, both because of the "breakfast" Jesus provides ("a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread") and the number of fish in Peter's net ("one hundred fifty-three") (John 21:11-12). Of the fish, Saint Augustine suggests that the roasted fish is the suffering Christ. Saint Gregory the Great adds that Christ lowered himself to swim in the "water" of our humanity; to be caught in the "net" of our death; to be "roasted" in his Passion on the fire of suffering. Saint Jerome claims that "one hundred fifty-three" represents the full number of known species of fish, signifying that the Church's "net" has room for all our widely diverse humanity, securing our unity-in-diversity in the hands of Peter and his successors. Having received God's mercy as "the beating heart of the Gospel," may the Church--we--"pattern [our] behavior after the Son of God who went out to everyone without exception" (Misericordiae Vultus, 12). --Peter Scagnelli, Copyright (c) J. *Please to be mindful of our Lord's presence whenever you are in the church. Making sure to genuflect whenever you pass before the tabernacle, maintaining a prayerful silence in the church, dressing modestly and *silencing cell phones are practices that we would all do well to follow—not simply out of respect for our Lord, but for the benefit of our fellow parishioners as well.

As you come into the church, please keep in mind that we have several parishioners and visitors with walkers and canes that would like to sit in the back by the baptismal font so the walk from their cars is not too far! Also make sure to lock your cars and trucks. Either keep your personal items with you in church or lock them in your trunk. This is for your safety.

To All Parents with Infants and Small Children

One of the most beautiful blessings of our Parish is that we have so many babies and small kids! While all children are most welcome in the church, please keep in mind that the acoustics in our church are excellent, which means that their voices carry. If your children cry or scream during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, please be sensitive to those around you by taking your child to one of our cry rooms. The cry rooms are reserved for families with small children. Everyone else is requested to sit in the church.

To those in the Cry Rooms for Mass

Please remember that these rooms are an extension of the church itself. Therefore, please be as reverent as possible during Mass. These rooms exist to help you train your children how to attend Mass properly; thus, they should not be used as play rooms. While everyone who uses the cry rooms expects them to be a bit noisier than the church, disruptive games or toys are better left at home. Moreover, conversations in the cry rooms should be kept to a minimum during Mass. Thank you for your consideration.

Outdoor Speakers

We have outdoor speakers for those whose small children are too loud for the cry rooms or narthex. Please be considerate of your fellow parishioners if your children are making a lot of noise.
