May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you! -- Psalm 67:6

Dear Parishioners,

Let us congratulate all of our children who made their first Holy Communion this weekend! A lot of time and effort goes into these celebrations, but even more work goes into preparing our students for these sacraments. Thus, I'd like to thank Danielle Mathis and all of our parents and young adults who help out in our parish faith formation program, as well as Patty Blais (the 2nd grade teacher at St. Ann's School) for their hard work in preparing our first communicants.

I also want to recognize our Confirmation Team members who do such a nice job each year of preparing our young people for the Sacrament of Confirmation, which will take place on Monday, 02 May 2016. Bishop Jugis always remarks about how well prepared and well behaved our students are. The Confirmation Team includes

Tom Mathis, Joe Warwick, Julie Miranda, and Cecilia McLaughlin.

A gracious word of thanks must also be given to Sr. Judy for her tireless efforts in forming our children in the practice of our beautiful Catholic faith. We are very blessed to have so many people here at St. Ann's who are dedicated to passing on our Catholic faith in its fullness and integrity, and I am very grateful to all of you for your efforts. Please pray for all of our young people here at St. Ann's who are receiving these important sacraments. Pray especially that they may grow in holiness through these sacraments, and that they develop an earnest desire to practice our beautiful Catholic faith throughout the entirety of their lives.

We also have two other very special events happening this week. On Thursday, 05 May 2016, at 7 p.m. we are having our 3rd annual "Orchestral Mass" in honor of our Lord's Ascension. This Latin Mass will be special because the music will be provided not just by our choir, but by an orchestra. For many centuries the Church has elevated the solemnity of a Mass by providing enhanced musical settings. As the Ascension of the Lord is one of most important feast days of the year, it's appropriate for us to celebrate it with this type of musical complement. So please join us for promises to be an especially beautiful Mass.

Lastly, on Friday, 06 May 2016, at 7 p.m. we are having our annual St. Dominic Savio Mass to honor our troop of altar boys. We've been doing this for the past few years as a way of thanking these young men who do so much to enhance our liturgies. The entire parish is welcome to join in this celebration. This year's Mass will be Novus Ordo.

Lastly, please keep in mind that the Home Mission collection that is taken every month in which we have 5 Sundays is used for our parish ministries that directly serve the poor. In particular, we use the monies from this 2nd collection to support our St. Vincent de Paul ministry, which provides financial help to the needy with things like rent and utilities, and our Homeless Ministry, which provides food regularly for our local homeless shelters. Thank you so much for your generosity to these ministries!

In the love of Jesus and Mary,
Fr. Reid

Endowments for St. Ann's Parish:

Did you know that we have an endowment for both our parish and our school? These funds, established in 1999 for the parish and 2000 for the school, are for the general and pastoral needs of our parish and school and were established through the generosity of donors in our parish. If you would like to learn more about our endowment funds and how you can make a contribution, contact Judy Smith in the Foundation for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Charlotte at 704-370-3320 or at jmsmith@charlottediocese.org.

“Whatsoever you do...”. This song retells the Gospel message in Matthew 25:35-40; and reiterates the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. It also beautifully reminds us what the ministries supported by the DSA do for thousands of our brothers and sisters across western North Carolina.

Check out our website: StAnnCharlotte.org, and go to the prayers/devotion section under “Resources.” Because of recent attacks on our religious freedoms we encourage everyone to pray the “Prayer for Religious Liberty” with the recent attacks on our religious freedoms there are several prayers and novenas on the website.

Jesus asks us to commit ourselves to be good stewards of the gifts entrusted to us, to share our time, our talent and our treasure as an outward sign of the love and gratitude we have for Him.

As Christian stewards, we share the responsibility of making our Church a true community of faith. This includes providing financial support for the future needs of our parish.

Online resources available to every member of our parish through a new program called Formed. This website includes a variety of free resources, including books, movies, podcasts, etc. for people of all ages. Go to: www.formed.org and click on “Find Out More” at the bottom of the homepage. Enter Our parish code: Y6ZQ8M, to get access to the resources. Call the parish office with questions. Once you’ve logged in, create your personal profile and access the programs. Our parish is paying an annual fee for this service, so please make use of this terrific resource!

In the Gospel today, Jesus says to us: “Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you.” By your gift to the St Vincent de Paul Society you also say to the needy: “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.”

Food Collections for the Catholic Charities Diocese of Charlotte Food Pantry are the first and third weekends of every month: The next collection weekends are April 30th-May 1st, May 21st-22nd, June 4th-5th.

This is the first time in centuries that this Mass will have been sung as no known printed music is available and it has by been recreated from old manuscripts by Thomas Savoy, the Chorale's Director. For information on the Chorale, please see: <http://www.carolinacatholicchorale.com/>

The next Baptismal Preparation class will be Sunday, June 12th at 9:10 a.m. Call the parish office to sign up for this class: 704-523-4641.

Understanding the latest document from the Vatican: Pope Francis has written an Apostolic Exhortation, Amoris Laetitia (The Joy of Love) which is receiving quite a bit of coverage in both Catholic and secular media. The document is complex and long, and it is the Holy Father's summary and direction to the Church, based on the two Synods on the Family that were held in 2014 and 2015. We know that it is rarely wise to rely solely on media reports on Holy Mother Church! If you would be interested in being part of parish group to read and discuss this important new document, contact Tricia at rwrxfan@yahoo.com. If there is sufficient interest, we will make more solid plans to begin a group.

The Diocese of Charlotte has announced the exciting news that it will establish a college seminary. St. Joseph Seminary will have its first class of seminarians in the Fall semester of 2016. The seminarians will live in community in the former St. Joseph Monastery on St. Ann Campus, while attending classes at Belmont Abbey College. We invite all parishioners to pray for our young men and to aid in the support of this endeavor. We have set up a SignUp Genius for items needed at the seminary. You may drop off the items at the parish office from now until August 22nd. Please mark the items as Seminary items. www.SignUpGenius.com/go/30E0544AEA62AA4FA7-seminary

Jubilee Year of Mercy
May 1, 2016, Sixth Sunday of Easter

In formal documents, presentations, and homilies outlining the purpose of this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis explains that compassion and understanding for those in difficult situations is not only our individual responsibility, but something the whole Church officially needs to manifest. Today's Acts of the Apostles reading presents a moving example of the early church doing precisely that. Prayerful openness to the Holy Spirit assures the assembly that they have not acted alone in discerning the correct resolution: "It is the decision of the Holy Spirit and of us." And they have chosen the compassionate response: "not to place on you any burden beyond these necessities" (Acts 15:28). Yet how daringly creative--the Jewish majority sets aside lifelong rituals that establish spiritual identity and express covenant fidelity. How radically trustful--the church affirms universally valid principles while respecting uniquely local and personal situations. Exactly the grace Pope Francis prays this Jubilee Year will renew in today's Church!

To book a room in the Allen Center, call Savas Mallos at 704-523-4641 x233.

*Please to be mindful of our Lord's presence whenever you are in the church. Making sure to genuflect whenever you pass before the tabernacle, maintaining a prayerful silence in the church, dressing modestly and *silencing cell phones are practices that we would all do well to follow—not simply out of respect for our Lord, but for the benefit of our fellow parishioners as well.

As you come into the church, please keep in mind that we have several parishioners and visitors with walkers and canes that would like to sit in the back by the baptismal font so the walk from their cars is not too far! Also make sure to lock your cars and trucks. Either keep your personal items with you in church or lock them in your trunk. This is for your safety.

To All Parents with Infants and Small Children

One of the most beautiful blessings of our Parish is that we have so many babies and small kids! While all children are most welcome in the church, please keep in mind that the acoustics in our church are excellent, which means that their voices carry. If your children cry or scream during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, please be sensitive to those around you by taking your child to one of our cry rooms. The cry rooms are reserved for families with small children. Everyone else is requested to sit in the church.

To those in the Cry Rooms for Mass

Please remember that these rooms are an extension of the church itself. Therefore, please be as reverent as possible during Mass. These rooms exist to help you train your children how to attend Mass properly; thus, they should not be used as play rooms. While everyone who uses the cry rooms expects them to be a bit noisier than the church, disruptive games or toys are better left at home. Moreover, conversations in the cry rooms should be kept to a minimum during Mass. Thank you for your consideration.

Outdoor Speakers

We have outdoor speakers for those whose small children are too loud for the cry rooms or narthex. Please be considerate of your fellow parishioners if your children are making a lot of noise.
