Dear Parishioners,

This week our parish is hosting a very special event: the visit of Bishop Athanasius Schneider on Thursday, 26 October 2017. Bishop Schneider is well known throughout the world as a defender of the Church's teachings and traditions, and a few years ago he wrote a great book entitled: Dominus Est – It is the Lord!, which is a reflection on Holy Communion. It's definitely worth your time to pick it up and read it. Bishop Schneider will be offering a Solemn Pontifical Mass (Latin) that evening at 7 p.m., and he'll be preaching on "The Kingship of Christ." There will also be a reception with some brief remarks immediately following the Mass in the Allen Center. I do hope many of you will come for what promises to be both a beautiful and informative evening.

Also, as this month of October, which is dedicated to the Holy Rosary, begins to wind down, I want to remind you all that while we focus on praying the Rosary throughout this month, it's a wonderful habit to pray the Rosary each and every day throughout the year. One thing that Our Lady of Fatima asked the three shepherd children at each of her apparitions in 1917 was to pray the Rosary daily. Obviously then it's a very powerful and important prayer, and to be sure there are many graces promised made to those who pray the Rosary daily. So I encourage you to make this important and beautiful prayer a part of your daily life. There are lots of wonderful articles on the internet about the graces received by those who are dedicated to the Rosary, and I also encourage you to read up on these!

Next Sunday we are having a very special event after the 12:30 Mass: a Eucharistic Procession in honor of Christ the King. While the Feast of Christ the King is celebrated as the Last Sunday in Ordinary Time in the new calendar of the Church, in the Latin Mass calendar it is celebrated on the last Sunday in October. Immediately after the 12:30 Mass, we will have a Eucharistic Procession around our property, and down Hillside Avenue and Willow Oak Road. Please join us as we pray for our nation and give glory and honor to Christ our King!

Lastly, as we get closer to November, it's time to begin thinking about the deceased who are in need of our prayers. If you have deceased friends or relatives that you wish to remember, it is a good Catholic custom to have Masses offered for them in order to remit whatever temporal punishments may still be due for their sins. An envelope has been provided in your October envelope packets for this purpose. Please list the names of those you want to be remembered on the envelope. All of the deceased loved ones of our parishioners will be remembered throughout the entire month of November, in particular in a Novena of Masses that will be offered on 9 days in November. Also, be sure to list your deceased loved ones in the Book of the Dead that will be placed in the narthex of the church next month. You may turn in your All Souls envelope at any time during this month or next month, or at Mass on November 2nd.

Yours in Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Reid

Endowments for St. Ann's Parish:

Did you know that we have an endowment for both our parish and our school? These funds, established in 1999 for the parish and 2000 for the school, are for the general and pastoral needs of our parish and school and were established through the generosity of donors in our parish. If you would like to learn more about our endowment funds and how you can make a contribution, contact Judy Smith in the Foundation for the Roman Catholic Diocese of Charlotte at 704-370-3320 or at jmsmith@charlottediocese.org.

For those of you who would like to learn more about our beautiful Catholic faith, we've now got some great on-line resources available to every member of our parish through a program called Formed. In order to access these resources, just go to: www.formed.org and click on "Find Out More" at the bottom of the homepage. You will be taken to page where you can enter a parish code to get access to the resources. Our parish code is: Y6ZQ8M. Once you've logged in under our parish code, you can create your personal profile and login.

In the Gospel today Jesus says: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." When God is the center of our lives there is no problem with giving others their due. Gifts to St Vincent de Paul help your neighbor who is hungry, hopeless and frightened to know that they belong to God.

Food Collections for the Catholic Charities Diocese of Charlotte Food Pantry are the first and third weekends of every month: The next collection weekends are: October 21st-22nd and November 4th-5th and November 18th-19th.

The Charlotte Latin Mass Community and St. Ann's Parish in Charlotte will host His Excellency Bishop Athanasius Schneider, ORC, for a special Pontifical Latin Mass (Extraordinary Form) on Thursday October 26th at 7:00 p.m. Bishop Schneider is the Auxiliary Bishop of Astana, Kazakhstan, and one of the foremost defenders of the Catholic faith in the Church today. Bishop Schneider will offer this special Mass and preach on the doctrine of the Kingship of Christ. Immediately after Mass, there will be a reception in the Allen Center. A Pontifical Mass in the Extraordinary Form is one offered by a Bishop or a Cardinal, and will be the Diocese's first Pontifical Latin Mass in over 30 years. All are welcome to attend this historic event. For information contact Mike FitzGerald at info@charlottelatinmass.org.

Have you ever found yourself stumped because you didn't know how to respond to questions about your Catholic faith from a friend, colleague or even your own children? Do you find yourself feeling like your catechism didn't answer all the questions you had about your faith or maybe you've forgotten? Are you new to the Church and think an RCIA refresher may be in store? Maybe you've come home after years away from the Church. If you answered yes to any of these questions or this sounds like you, then the Legion of Mary would like to invite you to a Sunday morning Adult Faith Formation class at 9:00-10:15 a.m. during the school year. We will be studying Bishop Robert Barron's Catholicism video series. Come join us for coffee and good conversation each week in classrooms 1 & 2 on the Allen Center! For information, contact Karen at rubbosgirl@carolina.rr.com.

On Sunday October 29th, The Charlotte Latin Mass Community and St. Ann parish will celebrate the original Feast Day of Christ the King with a High Latin Mass at 12:30 p.m. and a Eucharistic Procession after to honor Christ's Kingship. All faithful are invited to process with statues and images of their favorite king, queen or statesman saints (canonized, beatified or venerable) and to implore their aid upon our nation. The event will conclude with a recitation of the Act of Consecration of the Human Race to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions is granted for those who recite the Act on this feast day. For more information please contact Mike FitzGerald at info@charlottelatinmass.org.

Come and teach your children how to adore Jesus! We now have the generous opportunity to be in the main church before Our Lord, without the worry that a babbling toddler or loud baby is disturbing someone's peace. Family Adoration is a time for everyone to come before God in prayer, and will be available in the church on Mondays from 9:30-10:30 a.m. beginning Monday October 23rd. Come for Our Lord, and stay for play at the park afterward. Note: At this time, Our Lord will not be exposed during the Adoration period, but will remain with us in the tabernacle. Contact Melissa Lewis with questions mmlewis28@yahoo.com.

*Please to be mindful of our Lord’s presence whenever you are in the church. Making sure to genuflect whenever you pass before the tabernacle, maintaining a prayerful silence in the church, dressing modestly and silencing cell phones are practices that we would all do well to follow—not simply out of respect for our Lord, but for the benefit of our fellow parishioners as well. Thank you!*

If you are approached by panhandlers on the church campus, please do not give them money. Instead, direct them to the parish office for financial assistance. We have the St. Vincent de Paul Society to help those in need. Thank you!

Let’s be Social! Follow @StAnnCharlotte on:

As you come into the church, please keep in mind that we have several parishioners and visitors with walkers and canes that would like to sit in the back by the baptismal font so the walk from their cars is not too far! Also make sure to lock your cars and trucks. Either keep your personal items with you in church or lock them in your trunk. This is for your safety.

To All Parents with Infants and Small Children

One of the most beautiful blessings of our Parish is that we have so many babies and small kids! While all children are most welcome in the church, please keep in mind that the acoustics in our church are excellent, which means that their voices carry. If your children cry or scream during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, please be sensitive to those around you by taking your child to one of our cry rooms. The cry rooms are reserved for families with small children. Everyone else is requested to sit in the church.

To those in the Cry Rooms for Mass

Please remember that these rooms are an extension of the church itself. Therefore, please be as reverent as possible during Mass. These rooms exist to help you train your children how to attend Mass properly; thus, they should not be used as play rooms. While everyone who uses the cry rooms expects them to be a bit noisier than the church, disruptive games or toys are better left at home. Moreover, conversations in the cry rooms should be kept to a minimum during Mass. Thank you for your consideration.

Outdoor Speakers

We have outdoor speakers for those whose small children are too loud for the cry rooms or narthex. Please be considerate of your fellow parishioners if your children are making a lot of noise.
