Dear Parishioners,

I do hope you're enjoying this blessed Easter Season!

We've had very big news in our diocese lately. As I'm sure you all know by now, Bishop Jugis' resignation as the bishop of our diocese has been accepted by Pope Francis. Replacing him will be Bishop-elect Michael Martin, a Conventual Franciscan who, of late, has been serving in the Archdiocese of Atlanta. I've yet to meet Bishop-elect Martin, so I really cannot say much, except that I am hopeful he will be a good leader for our diocese. What's most important is that we pray fervently in this time of transition. Specifically, let us pray that the Holy Spirit will imbue Bishop-elect Martin with the wisdom, humility, charity, and prudence he will need to be a great bishop for the Diocese of Charlotte.

We would be remiss, though, if we did not also pray for Bishop Jugis, who is stepping down because of health concerns. Bishop Jugis is a son of St. Ann's, having been baptized in 1957 by our first pastor (and the first bishop of the Diocese of Charlotte), Michael Begley. And Bishop Jugis has been a constant support during my years as pastor here, providing guidance and encouragement as our parish has undergone significant changes. So, I encourage you to offer prayers of thanksgiving for all that Bishop Jugis has done for us, and for the Diocese of Charlotte at large.

I also want to thank all of you who took the time to fill out the recent survey for our pastoral planning process. We collected some great information from you, which is now being synthesized with the input from our parish staff. Ultimately, our parish council will be creating a planning document for our parish that will be presented to the bishop and key members of the Chancery staff in October. I'm very grateful for your help!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Reid

St. Mark, the Evangelist, is the author of the second Gospel and the patron saint of notaries. He wrote the Gospel in Greek for the Gentile converts to Christianity. Tradition says the Romans asked St. Mark to record the teachings of St. Peter about Jesus. St. Mark is often depicted as a winged lion in religious art.

St. Mark is also said to have traveled with St. Paul and St. Barnabas, who was Mark's cousin, on their missionary journey through Cyprus. Mark is said to have founded the Church in Alexandria.

St. Mark is sometimes called John Mark in the New Testament. Both he and his mother, Mary, were highly esteemed in the early Church, and his mother's house in Jerusalem served as a meeting place for Christians.

Prayer for Vocations

O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner,
 but rather that he be converted and live;
 grant, we beseech You,
 through the intercession of the Blessed Mary,
 ever Virgin,
 and all the saints,
 an increase of laborers for Your Church,
 fellow laborers with Christ
 to spend and consume themselves for souls,
 through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son,
 Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, world without end.
 Amen.

HEALED AND RESTORED:

Transforming Women's Lives One Heart at a Time WE NEED YOUR HELP

Healed and Restored was born at St. Mark Church in 2020, under the guidance of Fr. Putnam, to fill a void and tend to a need that's been overlooked in our communities and in the Charlotte Diocese in general. Our mission is to transform female victims of trauma and assault into strong survivors who positively impact the world, believe their worthiness, and feel God's love. Our vision is to strengthen women who are suffering after physically and mentally traumatic experiences through therapy, workshops and retreats. Our goal is to provide a safe, faith-filled home for women to receive mind, body, spirit and soul care free of charge with a residential program.

We are growing and so are our needs! We are looking for a space to rent (commercial or residential) in the Lake Norman/Charlotte area with a minimum of 900 square feet where we can hold group and one-on-one counseling sessions, workshops on life skills, nutrition education, and physical fitness therapy for the women we serve. If you or someone you know own a property that you think may fulfill our needs, we ask that you reach out to us by emailing us at: info@healedandrestored.org

To learn more about what we do visit our website www.healedandrestored.org. With your help we can continue to make a difference in women's lives! Thank you!
